

PNA-NC Quarterly Clinical and Professional Nursing Updates

Applied for
3.0 contact hours
Open to all RNs!
Free for PNA-NC members!

Theme:
Advocating for Nursing Care and Personal Development

When: April 13, 2019
8:00 a.m. – 1:05 p.m.

Where: University Tower
3100 Tower Blvd.
Durham, NC 27707

Agenda:

8:00 – 8:25 a.m.: Registration (Breakfast on your own)

8:25 – 8:30 a.m.: Announcements and Housekeeping

8:30 – 9:30 a.m.: Ann Marie Reed, MD

Topic: Newly Diagnosed Fever Syndromes: How Not to Miss Them?

- Dr. Reed is the Chair of the Department of Pediatrics at Duke University Hospital. Her area of expertise is juvenile autoimmune disorders and she has published numerous peer-reviewed articles in this specialty. Dr. Reed is Certified in General Pediatrics and Pediatric Rheumatology by the American Board of Pediatrics.

9:30 – 10:30 a.m.: Adam Flowe, MSN, CRNA

Topic: Ketamine: Resurgence and Current Applications

- Adam is the Chief Nurse Anesthetist at Duke University Hospital. A CRNA for 11 year, Adam has extensive knowledge and experience in the benefits of ketamine in anesthesia and in clinical care, as well as risks for abuse and dependency.

10:30 – 11:00 a.m.: PNA-NC Business Meeting

Facilitator: Aileen Laczi, BSN, RN, CNOR (PNA-NC President)

11:00 a.m. – 12:00 noon: Networking Lunch

Order lunch when you register online at www.pnanc.org; or lunch on your own.

12:00 noon – 1:00 p.m.: Dennis Dizon, MSN, BSN, BSPT, RN

Topic: Workshop #3: Building Wealth and Asset Accumulation

- Dennis Dizon is a registered nurse and a physical therapist with expertise in financial management. With this third installment on understanding a strong financial future (Workshop #3), Dennis will discuss how to build wealth and accumulate assets.

1:00 – 1:05 p.m.: Wrap-up

Please register online at www.pnanc.org
Order lunch ($15)
when you register online.

$35.00 (excluding cost of lunch) for non PNA-NC member.

Please write check to PNA-NC or pay via PayPal when you register online.

The PNAAC is an approved provider of continuing education by the California Board of Registered Nursing, CEP #14134,

